TERMS, ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Volume VIII.

FRANKFORT, KY., JUNE 13, 1885.

Number 39.

The June term of the Circuit Court meets on Monday.

The laying of the water pipe across the river, will probably be commenced Monday.

The County Court will on Monday determine whether we are to have a new bell on the Court House, perhaps.

Miss Lucy Montgomery, of this city, left Tuesday for Nashville, Tenn., to be organist at the A. M. E. Church, Dr. George Bryant, pastor.

Mr. John Brunch, of this county, has a fine young cow four years old, that now has her first calf, and gives eight gallons of milk a day.

Water from the old reservoir is now being supplied through the new pipes to all those who have had their service pipes connected with the new mains.

Rev. R. E. Caldwell will begin a protracted meeting at the Franklin Presbyterian Church Monday evening. Services will begin each evening at 8 o'clock.

A new pavement has been laid in front of the L. & N. Depot, which is a great improvement, the old one having been knocked full of holes by the unloading of baggage and express freight from the trains.

The water from pool No. 4 will be drawn off between the first and fifteenth of July to enable workmen to construct dam No. 5 and resheet dam No. 4. All persons interested in the navigation of the river should govern themselves accordingly.

The steamboat Sallie J. Cooper passed under the St. Clair street bridge Tuesday morning when a spark from her chimneys set fire to the shingle roof of the bridge. The alarm was sounded and quite an excitement created, but the damage done by the fire was not very great although the flames were hard to get at to extinguish.

Prison day was observed all over the United States by the Women's Christian Temperance Union on Tuesday. A committee from the Flower Mission Branch of the Louisville Union, composed of Mrs. Munnell, Mrs. Hagerman and Mrs. Davis, came up to this city, and together with a number of the ladies of the Union in this city, visited the Penitentiary on that day. The exercises took place in the chapel, where the convicts were assembled immediately after dinner. After singing, appropriate passages of scripture were read, and Mrs. Hagerman delivered a short and touching address, when the flowers were distributed, it being the object of the ladies to present each prisoner with a little bouquet having a passage of scripture attached. As the time allotted the ladies was confined to the noon hour, the exercises were necessarily brief, but were very interesting to the prisoners, who expressed their gratitude to their fair visitors through the Chaplain, Rev. H. H. Cavanaugh.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, Brother Winston Vaughn has been taken from our midst, and elevated to a higher and grander Lodge than ours; therefore,

Resolved, That in his death we have sustained a loss we deeply feel and deplore.
Resolved, That although God had spared him for many years, and he died full of years and of honors, yet the community in which he lived now mourns his absence from which has befallen them.
Resolved, That a good man, a kind neighbor, a true Christian and a faithful Odd Fellow has left us, and we fully realize this sad dispensation of Providence.
Resolved, That we sympathize with his family in the loss they have sustained.
Resolved, That we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the city papers.

As we predicted some time since vegetables are plentiful and cheap. We knew that when Antioch opened on Frankfort the market would be glutted. We have plenty of spring chickens that are held back for a rash.

We regret to hear of the death of Mr. Charles Quire. He was a young man that gave fair promise for a life of usefulness to his country. May the green sod rest lightly on his manly bosom, and his grave be covered with ever blooming flowers.

The Trouble Safely Over.

Stomach trouble is serious business while it lasts; but what a blessed relief to have it depart! Mrs. F. G. Wells, of 19 Atlantic street, Hartford, Conn., writes that she tried Brown's Iron Bitters for stomach trouble, and that she experienced such relief that the trouble is now over. She recommends this great iron medicine to all who are afflicted. It cures liver and kidney complaint.

A WATERBURY WATCH AND CHAIN! GIVEN AWAY WITH EVERY CASH SALE OF $15.00 AND OVER.

WHY WE DO IT.
The season has been late, prices in the East have been depressed, and we went into the market late with CASH IN HAND, and bought goods at prices that were unknown in the history of the trade. We have bought a mammoth stock of Boots, Shoes, Clothing, Hats, &c., and we offer this Watch and Chain as a premium for cash trade. None but THE CASH BUYERS will get the Watch. Our prices we guarantee are lower than the same goods can be bought elsewhere. The most of our goods were in the house and figured before we thought of the WATERBURY, and consequently we can not charge you one cent more for the goods.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 13, 1885.

Mr. A. B. Hammond and Miss Lena B. Rogers, daughter of R. Rogers, Esq., were married Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's father in South Frankfort, in the presence of quite a large gathering of relatives and friends, by Rev. G. C. Kelly. The bride is a beautiful and highly accomplished young lady of a modest, retiring disposition, and is greatly beloved by all who have been so fortunate as to form her acquaintance, while the groom is one of the most popular young men in the city, having for several years filled the position of book-keeper at the Champion Saw-mill. The young people were wisely settled down to house-keeping the same evening, the groom having prepared a home for his bride in Belle Point. A union so happily made can but be productive of great joy to both, and we extend our hearty congratulations to Len. and his fair bride.

Death of Mrs. Tubman.

Mrs. Emily Tubman, sister of Mr. L. A. Thomas, of this city, died at her home in Augusta, Georgia, at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, after a brief illness, in the 91st year of her age. Her long and useful life was an exemplification of the Godly walk of a true Christian, and was constantly beautified with acts of benevolence. Having been blessed with wealth, she bestowed charity with a liberal hand, erected churches of her denomination in this city, Augusta and several other cities where the congregations were weak, educated young men for the ministry, and made happy the homes of the poor and destitute. The Christian Church has lost an earnest, zealous member, Augusta a valuable citizen, and the poor and afflicted a kind and affectionate friend, whose hand was ever open to relieve their want and suffering.

It was her custom to spend the summer months with her brother's family in this city, and it was her intention to leave home on Monday for her usual visit here, but the sudden illness which resulted fatally prevented. Mr. Thomas and daughter, Miss Anne, left Monday evening for Augusta, having been summoned by telegraph, but her gentle spirit was at rest with the Redeemer long ere they arrived. To her, death was but laying aside the tired body and entering into the eternal peace prepared for those who love the Lord and serve him so long and faithfully as she had done. May her example never fade from the memory of man and her name be forever blessed.

Mr. John Maynard Harlan, youngest son of Justice John M. Harlan, and Mr. Harlan Cleveland, brother of Miss Lillie Cleveland, of this city, will leave the last of this month for Germany to enter the law and philosophy department of Berlin University.

Mr. A. H. McClure is erecting an addition of three rooms and a hall to his residence on Main street.

Rev. Dr. Willits, of Louisville, has consented to deliver another of his splendid lectures at the First Presbyterian Church in this city on Tuesday night week.

The commencement exercises of Excelsior Collegiate Institute, near Jett's Station, took place Wednesday evening. The graduates were Misses Marian Jett and Maggie A. Quinn.

Rev. C. Q. Wright, formerly of this county, who has recently been appointed Chaplain in the Navy, has been assigned to duty on Board the Man-of-war Omaha, now lying in New York harbor fitting out for service in the China seas.

The contractors for the construction of Dam No. 5 on the river have commenced dredging out for the foundations of the dam. Mr. Minus Williams, who had the contract for putting up the abutment, has nearly completed the job and has executed a fine piece of work.

Wm. Bean, a white man, and Nancy Ward, a colored woman, who have been living together for several years in the Jett Station neighborhood, this county, had a row Saturday, which resulted in Bean shooting the woman in the head, inflicting a slight wound. He was arrested on the charge of shooting with the intent to kill and will have his trial this morning.

The closing exercises of the Dudley Institute, of this city, for the past collegiate year, were held Thursday evening. Two young ladies, Misses Sallie W. Smith and Katie Green, read excellent essays and received diplomas, the former having completed the course in English, Mathematics and Latin, and the latter English and French. Miss Smith was awarded a gold medal for the best English composition, Bishop Dudley making the award.

We have heard of candidates making use of a great many different methods to obtain office, but a young man in this county tried an entirely new "racket" on Collector Robinson, a few days ago, by sending in his application for the position of Government Storekeeper made out in his wife's name. If he should succeed in having her appoint his signature to the reports, reading "A—B—U. S. Storekeeper, for wife" or "A—B—U. S. Storekeeper, Agent," would somewhat astonish the boys at Washington when they were sent in.

Mr. S. H. Friedlander, the Louisville manager, who hopes to be manager of the Opera House here next season, has concluded arrangements to bring Mr. James E. Murdock, the great tragedian and elocutionist, here during this month, to give humorous and dramatic recitals. This will surely be a treat for our Frankfort people, as Mr. Murdock has no equal in the world. The prices of admission Mr. Friedlander says will not be over 50 cents, and assures us of a most delightful evening's entertainment.

Mr. Samuel Blackburn, son of Hon. Jas. Blackburn, has been appointed to the position of Deputy Collector in this city, to succeed Judge W. H. Sneed, who has resigned. Mr. Blackburn has been residing in Memphis for several years.

Personal.

Mr. J. W. Gayle has been quite sick for several days.

Miss Lily Samuel, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting Miss Rebecca Williams.

Mr. T. E. Utterback returned Thursday afternoon from College at Lexington.

Mr. L. Id. Hawkins has been very ill for several days, at his home near this city.

Rev. Harry Bagby is at home from the Theological Seminary at Louisville.

Mr. Jas. F. Meek and wife, of St. Louis, Mo., are visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. Samuel M. Sanders, of Larue county, is visiting friends in this county.

Mr. Otis W. Snyder, the enterprising Lexington jeweler, spent Thursday in this city.

Mrs. O. T. Richardson returned Monday from a visit to friends in Simpsonville.

Mrs. Sarah McDevos, of Louisville, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Geo. W. Gayle, in this city.

Mr. Phil. Selbert and son, Master John, left Wednesday for a visit to friends in Cincinnati.

Misses Annie and Fannie Murray, of Cloverport, are visiting Miss Rosa Crittenden, Third street.

Mrs. H. G. Mattern and little daughter, Irene, left Thursday afternoon for a visit to relatives in Louisville.

Mr. Thos M. Newman left Thursday morning for Crab Orchard Springs, to take charge of the office of the hotel at that place.

Senator Blackburn passed through the city yesterday morning on his way to Louisville, and left his brother, Ex-Gov. Blackburn.

Miss Maggie Hayfield, of Louisville, and Miss L. Id. Peoples, of Science Hill, Shelbyville, are visiting Miss Emma Kavanaugh.

Miss Lizzie Freeman, who has been teaching school at Shauquanik, Mississippi, the past winter, returned to her home near Ducker Station Saturday.

Mr. S. T. Fortune left Wednesday for a visit to Louisville to look after a couple of farms, one in Marion and two other in Orange county, which he owns in that State.

TO WATER CONSUMERS.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 19th, 1885.
THE NEW WATER SERVICE PIPES NOW being laid in this city, are in many cases placed at a depth under the surface of sidewalks or ground, both in the street and private premises, not greater than eighteen (18) inches. Long experience in this latitude has established the fact that service water pipes laid at a depth of less than three (3) feet under ground are not safe against frost. When laid at a shallower depth they frequently freeze, burst, and interrupt the continuity of the water supply, and necessitate expense for repairs and the inconvenience to the public. The people are also cautioned against the trouble in store for them, by the acts of plumbers who locate hydrants and other fixtures for drawing water, in violation and defiance of the Water Company's Rule No. 3, on page 2 of its Rules and Regulations. My legs for seven years were one solid ulcer from my knees to my ankles. I had the best medical treatment that could be had in the state of Ohio, but this horrible disease resisted all the efforts made. The pain and loathsome odors became intolerable. At last I was induced to try Swift's Specific. It has worked wonders. I commenced to take S. S. S. the first of January, 1884, and have taken 38 large size bottles. My legs are sound and as they ever were, and I am truly grateful for what it has done for me. In fact I would not take $10,000 for what it has wrought in me, because I honestly believe it has saved me from an early grave.

He is well and has been for two years, and not the slightest symptoms of return has ever appeared.

S. S. S. as a Lotion.

Mr. R. O. Bean, passenger agent on the Mobile and Ohio railroad, writing from Miss., says: "I have seen Swift's Specific used as a wash for ulcers and plagues with the most gratifying results. As a blood purifier it drives the poison to the surface, and then used as a wash, it absorbs and dries up the sores. I have seen it used in cases of blood poison, and skin eruptions, and these diseases disappear in one-half the time that it ordinarily takes by the usual method."

Mrs. Oliver Hardman, of Monroe, Ga., who has had a cancer cured on her face, says: "I used Swift's Specific as a wash in the treatment of my cancer with remarkable success. I spunged the sore with the medicine diluted with water twice a day. It softened the scab, cooled the face and relieved the itching sensation."

We have received assurance from others of the excellent character of the medicine as a wash, in cases like those referred to above. We give this information as we received it, leaving every one to test the matter for themselves.

Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free.
